Calderdale Breastfeeding Peer Support Service

Becoming a Volunteer

Calderdale Breastfeeding Peer Support Service are looking for volunteers to help us support new mothers across Calderdale on their breastfeeding journey.

Did you breastfeed your child for at least 4 months?

If so, our training will enable you to volunteer alongside Midwives and Health Visitors across different locations including, Children's Centres, hospitals and the Baby Café, as well as providing support over the phone and by visiting mothers at home.

We would like mothers from all backgrounds to attend our training course and to volunteer around 2-3 hours each week as a Breastfeeding Peer Supporter.

Training

Volunteering as a Peer Supporter is a rewarding role helping mothers to achieve their breastfeeding goals.

Training is free and will give you the confidence and skills to be a Breastfeeding Peer Supporter and may help you gain future employment. As a Breastfeeding Peer Supporter you will also receive on-going support and training in the role and are reimbursed for travel expenses.

Training takes place regularly at different locations in Calderdale.
