STATUTORY DECLARATION

SECTION 31(6) OF THE HIGHWAYS ACT 1980

THE NATIONAL TRUST FOR PLACES OF HISTORIC INTEREST OR NATURAL BEAUTY DO SOLEMNLY AND SINCERELY DECLARE as follows:

1. The National Trust is and has been since 15th December 1950 the owner of the land known as Hardcastle Crag more particularly delineated on the map accompanying this declaration and thereon edged red.
2. On the 06th day of December 1999 The National Trust deposited with the Metropolitan Borough of Calderdale Council, being the appropriate Council, a statement accompanied by a map delineating its property by red edging which stated that the ways coloured green on the said map and on the map accompanying this declaration had been dedicated as bridleways, the ways coloured purple on the said map and on the map accompanying this declaration had been dedicated as footpaths and no other ways had been dedicated as highways over its property.
3. No additional ways have been dedicated over the land edged red on the map accompanying this declaration since the statement dated 06th December 1999 referred to in 2. above and at the present time there is no intention of dedicating any more public rights of way over its property.

AND THE NATIONAL TRUST MAKE this solemn declaration on the 17th day of August 2000 conscientiously believing it to be true and by virtue of the Statutory Declarations Act 1835.
