Dear ,

Neighbourhood Planning was introduced in the Localism Act of 2011. It gives local communities the right to develop a Neighbourhood Plan for their area, which, once it is approved, will contribute to the process for determining future planning applications.

We are currently finalising the Neighbourhood Plan for Park Ward in Halifax which covers issues of importance to the local community such as protecting open space, tackling dereliction and improving the environment for residents and businesses.

Information about the draft Neighbourhood Plan for Park ward can be found on our website at www.parkwardndp.org.uk

Section 6 of the Plan makes reference to the need to encourage development on a number of key sites in the neighbourhood, including one which we believe may be in your ownership, Name of site.

Should you have any comments on the draft Plan, please contact us either in writing at the above address, or by emailing councillor.jlynn@calderdale.gov.uk

Yours faithfully,

Jenny Lynn
